

Dean of Students

Located in the scenic and vibrant Lehigh Valley, Lafayette College in Easton, PA, invites energetic and dynamic educators committed to developing students and positive communities to apply for the position of Dean of Students. Lafayette is proud to be a selective residential liberal arts college with a phenomenal engineering program, whose faculty, staff, alumni, and friends all have the undergraduate experience of our students as our sole focus. Our motto is cur non (why not?) and every day we are fortunate to have students who live that ideal and ask us to shepherd them in that journey. Lafayette is a place that values diversity and inclusion, engagement outside the classroom, and deep connections with faculty so that students can truly launch their lives at Lafayette.

The Dean of Students is an advocate for students and a vital member of the Division of Campus Life as well as the College as a whole. Reporting to the position of Vice President for Campus Life & Senior Diversity Officer, the Dean of Students is a twelve-month full-time position that oversees several facets of the Division (Recreational Services, Residence Life, Student Development and Student Life Programs) and also actively collaborates with other members of the Division, Faculty and the College to create rich learning opportunities that integrate academic experiences with life outside the classroom. The Dean of Students is also a member of the President's Senior Staff and engages in many partnerships and initiatives with other campus leaders.

We invite applications to join our community in this position and take part in educating and serving Lafayette students. A Master's Degree in higher education administration, student personnel, counseling, or a related field is required, with at least nine years of professional level experience with a pattern of increased responsibilities including four years at the Director level or above. Experience in a selective, residential, liberal arts institution is required, along with demonstrated success collaborating with faculty, nurturing student development, and cultivating campus initiatives. This is a full-time position, beginning on July 1, 2012. Lafayette College seeks applicants who value cultural competency and strive to serve in an inclusive environment.

Lafayette College offers a competitive salary and generous benefits package as compensation. For full consideration, please submit a cover letter, resume, and contact information for three (3) references by January 1, 2012 to ypcampuslife@lafayette.edu and further details about employment with Lafayette College can be found online at <http://hr.lafayette.edu/employment/>

Lafayette College is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from women and minorities.