- The Staff Psychologist also provides outreach and consultation services to the University community, particularly those directed toward underserved students.
- The Staff Psychologist's work in all domains is expected to be multi-culturally informed and consistent with the learning objectives of the Division of Student Affairs.
- Conduct individual intake assessments, 3-5 per week as agreed upon with Director.
- Manage individual caseload to incorporate new clients in an ongoing manner.
- Document telephone and face to face consultations with IUB faculty, staff, family members and any others pertaining to students of concern, who may or may not be CAPS clients.
- Participate in peer chart reviews.
- Maintain accurate, timely clinical notes, following CAPS' Quality Improvement committee standards regarding such things as documentation of diagnosis, substance use, threats to self and others and treatment planning.
- Manage assigned crisis walk in coverage, displaying crisis management skills – students come to CAPS with wide ranging problems, interfering with their academic and overall functioning.
- The Staff Psychologist participates on CAPS' after-hours crisis response team on an as needed basis, in the event of larger scale campus crises.
- Serve as liaison to a campus group, as requested by the CAPS Outreach Coordinator, consulting with the group regarding educational programs, students of concern, and consultations with faculty and administrators.

- The Staff Psychologist participates in CAPS' pre-doctoral intern training program, serving as primary or group supervisor and participating in the various training seminar series.
- Supervision of pre-doctoral interns in their varied clinical roles at CAPS, including their supervision of practicum students.
- Participates as a member on the Training Committee (when supervising).
- Participate in intern recruitment and selection process.
- Conduct intern educational seminars, as requested by Director of Training.

General Responsibilities:

- Provides direct clinical service including evaluation and testing to identify cognitive difficulties that may impede the patient's normal functions.
- Provides individual, group, and relationship counseling.
- Provides crisis intervention and online counseling.
- Documents clinical activities according to standards, procedures, and policies.
- Provides individual clinical supervision to counselors/psychologists in training.
