Tenure Track Business Law Professor (Open Rank)

The Risk Management Department in the Smeal College of Business is seeking to fill a tenure-track (open rank) appointment in Business Law effective Fall 2023. This position will have teaching responsibilities at the undergraduate level.

Education and Experience:

Candidates must have a J.D. degree from an ABA accredited law school with an excellent academic record and must demonstrate the capacity to conduct quality research and publish in the top journals in the field. The ability to contribute quality teaching should also be evidenced. Qualified applicants with an expertise in any area of law will be considered, but the department has a particular interest in candidates with a background in UCC and commercial transactions law, securities law and financial regulation, or legal aspects of risk management. Candidates with a second degree in a business-related field at either the masters or undergraduate level and/or teaching experience in higher education in the field of business law are particularly encouraged to apply. This position is based in University Park, Pennsylvania. Salary and benefits will be competitive and commensurate with the background and experience of the chosen candidate.

Academic Environment:

The internationally ranked Penn State Smeal College of Business prepares students for professional success now and across their careers. Within a vibrant intellectual community, we are a source of expertise, research, and talent that influences the business practices of tomorrow. At Smeal, we are building connections, creating opportunities, and producing results. The strategic priorities of integrity, diversity, and sustainability form the foundation on which the Penn State Smeal College of Business is built. In and out of our classrooms, across our departments and programs, and throughout our global network of alumni and partners, we are a business school responsive to the demands of business today.

Application requirements:

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled. Candidates must upload to their application a letter of application, a copy of their curriculum vitae, the names of at least three references, and evidence of quality teaching where appropriate. Reference letters should be emailed by the letter writer to SmealBLAWAppssmeal.psu.edu.
