FACULTY POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

VISITING MULTICULTURAL FACULTY POSITION

Full time, non-tenure track, one-year appointment with the possibility of renewal for a second year. The Theatre School at DePaul University seeks a faculty member to join us in our continued commitment to ongoing intercultural exchange. The position includes a combination of the following responsibilities: teaching, scholarship, theatremaking, and/or community engagement. The exact mix of activities will be negotiated with the Dean based on the candidate's area(s) of expertise, interests and the needs of the school. We seek a candidate whose work both reflects themes of the twenty first century's—such as race, gender, ethnicity, diaspora, indigeneity, sexual orientation, gender identity global and/or class considerations. Appointment to run from early September 2016 to mid-June 2017.

Qualifications: A mix of professional theatre experience and a demonstrated desire to engage students, faculty, and staff in an academic setting that includes departments of performance, theatre studies, and design/technology. Terminal degree or equivalent professional experience and university teaching experience is preferred. The ideal candidate will help foster a more inclusive institutional culture that will impact classes, productions, and workshops across a variety of disciplines within a professional theatre training conservatory. DePaul University is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, ethnicity, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, age, marital status, physical or mental disability, protected veteran status, genetic information or any other legally protected status, in accordance with applicable federal, state and local EEO laws.

The Theatre School at DePaul University educates, trains, and inspires students of theatre in a conservatory setting that is rigorous, disciplined, culturally diverse, and that strives for the highest level of professional skill and artistry. Central to our mission is a commitment to diversity and equality in education. As an integral part of the training, The Theatre School produces public programs and performances of a wide repertoire of plays—classic, contemporary, and original—that challenge, entertain, and stimulate the imaginations of our artists and our audiences. We seek to enhance the intellectual and cultural life of our university, our city and the profession.

DePaul University is a thriving multi-faceted Catholic, Vincentian, and urban university with ten schools and colleges, two main campuses, and enrollment of over 23,000 students. The Theatre School, located on the university's Lincoln Park campus, enrolls 350 students in 12 undergraduate and 3 graduate programs in a recently completed state of the art facility. Our faculty includes leading Chicago theatre artists across all disciplines. Faculty members are active participants in the thriving Chicago theatre community.

Application and Deadlines: Application must be completed online at: http://facultyopportunities.depaul.edu/postings/309 by submitting cover letter (which includes personal statement and teaching philosophy) and CV/resume that includes contact information for a minimum of three references. Letters of recommendation may be requested later in the process. Paper applications will not be accepted. For best consideration, please submit applications by January 4, 2016.